DEWEY IS NOT WELL.

Some Foundation for the Current Reports.

Philippine Climate Has Been Bad for Him.

Has Not, However, Been Subject to a Sick Report,

But Preferred to Finish His Work at Manila.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—When his attention was called to the statement coming from Vancouver to the effect that Admiral Dewey is breaking down and cannot last a month longer, Secretary Long said that he had no information whatever on this point.

The stories of the admiral's ill health have been in circulation with more or less persistency for the past four months. They are all traceable to private reports and though officers of the navy who have returned recently from Manila state that Dewey's health, so far as it could be gauged by his appearance, appears to be about the same as it has been for the past year, they agree that the private reports probably have a fair basis of fact.

It is not denied by these officers that the admiral has aged in his appearance notably within the past year; his hair is undoubtedly whiter and his figure shows signs of that weakness which might be expected to come with advancing years. Dewey will be sixty-two years old next December, and for many years has not been a strong man physically. Meantime, he has had imposed upon him the most severe and exacting duties, so that it is but natural that his frail physique should show the effect of the tremendous strain.

It is said by persons familiar with the Philippine climate that the second year is the hardest to bear for a Caucasian, and Dewey too will begin his second year there.

In addition to this he labors under the drawback of having undergone a most severe surgical operation for the relief of his liver. A man needs a sound liver in the Philippines of all places. These facts led naval officers to believe reports that Dewey is showing signs of physical decay.

On the other hand, as already stated, there is absolutely no official evidence on file at the department to show that this is true. The full medical history of Admiral Dewey is among the records of the bureau of medicine and surgery. They show every ailment that he has experienced since he has been in the navy, as well as the results of the physical examinations he has undergone when he has been promoted from time to time. But these do not disclose any complaint at this time. The scientist has not been made the subject of a sick report since he went to Manila.

Some time ago the president feared that the great strain he was under might overtax him, so he ordered Dewey, through Secretary Long, permission to return to the United States. The admiral declined to avail himself of this permission and asked permission to stay, saying that in his opinion duty required that he should finish the task he had begun at Manila. The president accepted this statement and Dewey remains by his own choice. So far from a return to the United States whenever he cares to do so and the department will relieve him by cable orders. In that case Capt. N. H. Dyer, the commander of the Baltimore, who is the senior captain of the Asiatic station, would have command of the American squadron temporarily, and probably would be relieved later by one of the rear admirals re-cently created, nearly all of whom are anxious to assume active flag rank before retirement.

ABSORBED IT.

Builders' Lime Association Bought by Fort Wayne Firms.

Negotiations have been in progress for two weeks between the Builders' Lime association and the firms of Moellering & Sons, Balke & Sons and A. B. Wrackman & Co. with the object of the absorption of the former by the three latter mentioned firms. The deal was completed on Tuesday and business past the Builders' Lime association will begin which has not been made public but which is considered to be about $5,000. The Builders' Lime association is composed of a number of building contractors who bought and sold their supplies on the co-operative plan, and any member of the association could buy his supplies at actual cost. The current expenses of the association were paid by a per rate assessment. The three above mentioned firms will now have control of the business though the interests are not pooled. It is affirmed that the recent advance of 25 cents a barrel had nothing to do with it. They say that the lime trust is responsible for the advance.

FILIPINOS UNDONE.

Attack on Americans Was a Big Mistake.

Realize They Must Yield to New Authority.

Many of the Leaders are Ready to Quit.

Consul Barrett Talks of Affairs in the Philippines—Where the Arms Have Been Procured.

HONG KONG, Feb. 8, via San Francisco, March 9.—In an interview with the Associated Press correspondent, John Barrett, late United States minister to Siam, who is passing through Hong Kong en route home, said:

"The collision of forces at Manila is the most disastrous thing that could have happened to the Filipino cause for independence.

"Now that the treaty is ratified right after the reckless opening of hostilities, the Filipino leaders are almost dumbfounded and are completely at a loss as to the future policy. They candidly admit that the worst blow possible has been struck at their prospects. One even confessed to me that the very best thing that they could do now was to disband, disarm and quietly yield to American control, trusting that full justice would eventually be done them.

"I have always had much sympathy for the Filipinos and regarded them as comparing most favorably with the Asiatic nations, hoping with the guidance and control of our American government they would form at least an autonomous government that would relieve us of the great responsibilities and difficulties of direct government, and I am still hopeful that these clouds and storms may be only temporary and a happy solution of the great problem successfully reached."

KNOWS THE FILIPINOS.

M. M. Shoemaker Says They Are Unfit for Self government.

CINCINNATI, March 9.—M. M. Shoemaker, of this city, author and traveller, has just returned from a years' tour, including India and the Philippines.

He spent the greater part of the month of January in and about Manila, where he made a study of the Filipinos.

He says self-government by the Filipinos would be impossible; that the native would soon relapse into savagery. They are, he says, naturally a treacherous, suspicious and "no account" race. They need the iron rule of good government to keep them at all within the bounds of civilization. The half caste cities in Manila, corresponding to the mulatto, are the most intelligent. Speaking of how the insurgents procure arms, Mr. Shoemaker says there is a report in Hong Kong that a firm in Shanghai, consisting of three brothers, Swiss, Greek and German respectively, by representing that each one is a resident of a different country, so that if one nation objects the blame can be laid on some other country.

HOW TO FISH.

The New Law Protecting the Finny Tribe.

The new fish law passed by the present legislature is now in force, an emergency clause having been attached. The law is intended to close the season during May and June, the spawning season, and throwing other restrictions around fishing that will in time, if the law is obeyed, allow the fish to multiply and become as plentiful as they were before the present murderous methods came in vogue. One provision attaches a penalty for polluting water sufficiently to kill the fish. Another makes dynamiting a felony punishable by imprisonment for from one to three years. Trout line fishing is allowed with a line having not more than fifty hooks. Seining as allowed in July, August and September, but owners of seines must obtain a license from the fish commissioner and the meshes must not be less than two inches. All bass under nine inches in length, and croppies and black bass under six inches must be returned to the water if caught. The penalties range from $5 to $50, and, trying to catch fish is punishable by a fine of the attempt, and with cessful. The owner of a seine must give a $200 bond, which is forfeitable to the state if read unlawfully.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church to Build South of the East End.

On the property known as the Fletcher homestead, on Walton avenue, the congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran church have decided to erect a school building. The school will be a handsome brick building, accommodating 250 pupils, and will cost about $7,000. The overcrowded condition of the Barr street school has made this move necessary and, while it has been under consideration for some time, it was not definitely decided until last Sunday. The Fletcher property was purchased about a year ago for church purposes and is close to the site chosen for the church. All pupils who live east of Ouiatenon will be required to attend the new school. The same curriculum will be in vogue as in the other Lutheran schools of the city, and which are all up to the best educational methods. The division will necessitate the employment of an additional staff of teachers.

Beef Inquiry Visits the Great Packing Houses.

Inspecting the Methods of Slaughtering and Preserving Meat—No Oral Testimony Taken.

CHICAGO, March 9.—The Chicago end of the investigation regarding army beef began with the arrival of Major General James F. Wade and Brigadier General George L. Gillespie, members of the court of inquiry.

They had been preceded by General George W. Davis, Lieutenant Colonel George B. Davis and Major J. M. Lee. While in Chicago the court will examine the various packing houses and will take all available testimony, although no witnesses were formally summoned by the court to appear in this city.

The board held a brief executive session immediately upon assembling at division army headquarters in the Pullman building. As a result of the executive session the members left at once for the stock yards district to visit the packing houses and observe the slaughtering methods and the various processes of packing and refrigerating beef.

This afternoon the commission continued making its way through one-packing establishment after another, the members endeavoring faithfully to make for themselves all the details of transforming cattle into canned roast beef, etc. No oral testimony was taken.

Heart Carries Away a Dime.

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio, March 9.—One hundred and fifty feet of the state dam here was carried away by the flood in the Scioto river. The break renders the canal from here to Portsmouth useless, there being a feeder at this point. There will be a strong protest against rebuilding the dam on the part of the people who favor the abandonment of the canal. If it should be repaired the expenditure of over $50,000 would be necessary.

DEATH AND LIFE.

Subject of Rev. Morton Smith's Sermon.

Difference Between Physical Death and Spiritual Death—A Strong and Plain Discourse.

The attendance at the First Presbyterian church last night showed that there is increasing interest in the gospel services now in progress there. More people were present than at any meeting since Rev. Morton Smith began his labors in Fort Wayne.

Rev. Smith gave a strong and plain talk concerning life and death and elucidated his discourse with the light of the scriptures. The evangelist is suffering from a severe cold and talked with evident distress, though his earnestness of manner and his clearness of thought and force of statement appeared in no wise impaired. He took his text from the ninth chapter and twenty-seventh verse of Mark: "But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose." It was the old story of the boy from whom Jesus cast out the evil spirit. He fell upon the ground and the by-standers all declared him dead. Death, said the evangelist, as the term was defined by the dictionaries, led many into gross misunderstanding of the term as it was used in the Bible. When God charged Adam that if he disobeyed the command of the Lord he would surely die, did not mean a physical death, else God had falsified. A spiritual, not a physical death was meant. None could escape physical death. It came to all. The great tragedy was going on all about us all the time. Through Christ the spiritual death could be escaped and only through Christ.

Rev. Smith divided his discourse under three heads—death, Christ, life. In speaking of death, he said, he was trying to terrorize no one. It was the inevitable lot of humanity to die. Science had done much to give death a terrifying aspect than the preachers. Death came in numerous and terrible forms. It was all about us and always ravening. To some was vouchsafed warning of the approaching hour; to others no warning was given. There was but one preparation for it—to be born again and into eternal life through the Savior.

THE END HAS COME.

Sidney C. Lumbard Dies in Early Morning Hours.

Yielded to Death After a Lung Struggle.

One of the Most Prominent of City's Business Men.

His Life Passed an Active and Successful Career and Managed Longer After Entire His Life.

Sidney C. Lumbard died of Bright's disease at 3:15 this morning, after an illness that had confined him to his home since December 17th last. His condition for weeks has been such that the attending physicians could give no hope to the sorrowing family, and for a week his death was expected to occur at any hour. A man of strong constitution, Mr. Lumbard made a hard fight to conquer, but was unable to cope longer with the Grim Destroyer.

For twelve weeks he had been unable to leave his home, and most of those weeks was bedridden. He suffered from a heart affection, which did not aid him in his fight to prolong life. Last Friday it was believed that death was near, but Mr. Lumbard rallied and again the family had hopes that life at least might be prolonged. Monday evening he commenced to grow weaker, and a greater portion of the time was unconscious, although at intervals able to recognize the members of his family, who were constant attendants upon his bedside. He strength gradually failed, however, until death claimed him.

LIFE OF MR. LUMBARD.

Sidney C. Lumbard was almost fifty years of age, having been born in New York city in the year 1850. While an infant his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford H. Lumbard removed to Rockford, Ill., and in 1865 came to Fort Wayne, where for many years the senior Lumbard was agent for the Phoenix Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn. He died of Bright's disease at about the same age of the son who now follows him to the world beyond.

The boyhood days of Sidney Lumbard were spent in this city and here it was that he grew to manhood. He attended the public schools and in them secured the education which afterward so materially aided him in his successful business life. While attending school he had as schoolmates and play-fellows boys who have since become prominent in the affairs of Fort Wayne. Among these schoolmates were Judge H. C. Newton, H. C. Olds, the late J. M. Coombs, and others.

On June 14, 1870, Mr. Lumbard was united in marriage to Adelia Lynn and to this union were born three children, all of whom, with the mother, survive. The children are Frank, and Miss Georgia and Mrs. R. H. Carnahan. Mary A. Lumbard, the aged mother, and Miss Ella Lumbard—a sister, also survive and reside on West Berry street. Miss Ella Lumbard is a teacher in the public schools. There is one grandchild.

When a young man Mr. Lumbard was quite an athlete and during his entire life was a lover of athletic sports. He was a member of the famous Kekionga base ball club and was recognized as the best batter on the team. This was when the club was composed of amateurs, among them being C. D. Dawson, Fred Fallen, C. D. Carlisle, Fred Garham, John I. White, George J. E. Mayer, Hugh M. Diehl, Fred Schrader and John Bingland. There wasn't a team in the country that could beat the Kekionga, and the first $10 game ever played was won by them from the Forest Citys, of Cleveland, Ohio. Indianapolis aspired to base ball honors, but the Kekionga went to the capital and defeated the Indianapolis boys by a score of 25 to 0, and in that game Mr. Lumbard was a star. It was only as an amateur that he participated in the game. Mr. Lumbard was a great fisherman and at no time was he happier than when, with a party of friends he was riding in a boat or sitting on the river bank waiting for the finny tribe to "nibble" at his deceptive bait. He frequently visited the resorts of Michigan and had a boss house and fishing outfit at West lake, near Rome City.

For thirty years Mr. Lumbard has been active in the business and political affairs of Fort Wayne. In the late 60s he was associated with his father, but later formed a partnership with John S. Irwin in the insurance business. The partnership was dissolved in 1872, Mr. Irwin assuming the life insurance portion of the business and Mr. Lumbard retaining the fire insurance. Since that time, more than twenty-six years, he has been recognized as the leading insurance man of the city. While not actively engaged as a partner in any other business, he did at times have charge of large business concerns. Before the Messrs. Robison purchased the Citizens' Street railway Mr. Lumbard had been acting as receiver for the company and had successfully managed its affairs. He was the representative of John H. Bass, R. T. McDonald and Henry G. Olds in many of the large deals which they occasionally made and these gentlemen at all times expressed the greatest confidence in his ability and integrity. The management of the New Aveline hotel was practically in Mr. Lumbard's hands during Mr. McDonald's ownership and for a time he was its landlord along with Mr. Baker. An experienced insurance man himself it has been through a intership in Mr. Lumbard's office that such men as Murray Harbaugh and W. P. Cooper first received their knowledge of the business at which they are now so successful.

Mr. Lumbard was, at different times, the owner of considerable property. With R. T. McDonald he owned what was once Ewing's grove, now covered with pretty residences and known as Ewing's Grove addition. He had property interests in the western part of the city and platted what is known as Lumbard's addition in Nebraska. For several years he was agent for the Barber asphalt company and it was while he was agent that the pavements were laid on Wayne and Berry streets. He organized the first telephone company in Fort Wayne and disposed of it to the Bell company.

He was one of the charter members of the Fort Wayne club and was always interested in making that club what it was at one time, the best social club in the state of Indiana.

In politics always a democrat, Mr. Lumbard was not a partisan of the hide-bound kind. Neither was he a seeker after office, although serving one term as councilman and twice having been a candidate for mayor, once at the solicitation of friends urging as an independent candidate and three years ago contesting the democratic nomination with Henry P. Scherer. His advice was always sought by the democratic leaders and it was generally considered sound.

Until a few months ago Mr. Lumbard was the manager of his large insurance business. When his condition became such that he could not daily attend to it he made his son, Frank, a partner, and he has since had charge of the business.

WAS A MASON.

Mr. Lumbard had been a member for many years of Wayne lodge, No. 25, F. & A. M.

HIS INSURANCE.

He has insurance amounting to $20,000. It was in two policies, one of $10,000 in the New England Mutual and another of $10,000 in the New York Life.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral will be held next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence, but arrangements therefor have not been completed. Rev. Dr. Darlington, who for years each day that he had worked for the complainant, Justice France found that he had worked several years at wages of $8, $9 and $10 a week and worked more than eight hours each day. He did so under an implied contract. Plaintiff knew the duties before he accepted the job and entered into an implied contract that he was to perform them and therefore could not recover extra wages for time longer than eight hours that he may have worked.

Constable Rosbke raided Joste Robb's place over 26 East Colombia street last evening and arrested Robb on a charge of keeping a nuisance. The trio paid fines to Justice Huser and were released.

THE DEATHS.

The fact that Dr. Lapponi is again sleeping at the Vatican has aroused a fresh crop of rumors, including one to the effect that the pope is suffering from a senile cancer. But, his physicians unequivocally deny this. They say that the patient has a good appetite and is convalescing rapidly.

Americans En Route to Manila in Review before the English Military and Naval Officers.

VALLETTA, Island of Malta, March 9.—The United States transport Sheridan, from New York on February 19th for Manila, arrived here yesterday morning. By permission of the governor of Malta, Gen. Sir Arthur James Lyon Fremantle, the American troops, consisting of 2,000 men, landed today, and the governor, attended by his staff, inspected them on the Floriana parade ground.

Subsequently, the Americans marched past and created a splendid impression.

Admiral Sir John Commassey Ropkins, commander-in-chief of the Mediterranean station, and Major General Lord Congleton, commanding the infantry brigade, with their staffs, were present. There was also a large attendance of naval and military men and an immense concourse of spectators.

The troops on board the United States transport Sheridan consist of the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Eighteenth and a battalion of the Seventeenth United States infantry. The detachment is commanded by Colonel Smith.

TWO MORE DIVORCES.

Husbands are Plaintiffs in Both of the Cases.

Two applications for divorce were filed in the circuit court today, the plaintiff in each case being the husband.

Through his attorney, John H. Aiken, William Stock asks for a legal separation from Sophia Stock, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. He claims that she refused to cook meals for him and to do his washing and finally removed all personal property, from their home.

John Philip Heising by his attorney, E. V. Kimpel, applies for a divorce from Barbara Heising, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. He asserts that the wife used vile and indecent language and refused to live with him. They were married February 3, 1878, and on February 3, 1899, One daughter, Madeline, was the result of the union.

THE PLAINTIFF LOST.

Squire France Decided Against Foreman in Eight-Hour Case.

Justice H. F. France last evening made his finding in the case commenced by Chas. Fessenden against the B. W. Shelton company for $126 wages, which he claimed was due him for eight hours each day that he had worked for the complainant. Justice France found that he had worked several years at wages of $8, $9 and $10 a week and worked more than eight hours each day. He did so under an implied contract. Plaintiff knew the duties before he accepted the job and entered into an implied contract that he was to perform them and therefore could not recover extra wages for time longer than eight hours that he may have worked.

Constable Rosbke raided Joste Robb's place over 26 East Colombia street last evening and arrested Robb on a charge of keeping a nuisance. The trio paid fines to Justice Huser and were released.

THE BISHOP'S CONDITION.

Improvement in His Mind, But is Very Weak Physically.

ROME, March 9.—An examination of the pope's wound was made today by Dr. Mazzoni, who found it was healing rapidly and progress. His holiness hopes to recommence his receptions speedily.

The fact that Dr. Lapponi is again sleeping at the Vatican has aroused a fresh crop of rumors, including one to the effect that the pope is suffering from a senile cancer. But, his physicians unequivocally deny this. They say that the patient has a good appetite and is convalescing rapidly.

HON. WILLIAM V. ALLEN retires from the senate of the United States the holder of all the long-distance records for speech-making. His successor has been set a hot pace.

IT NOW turns out that no democrats outside New York state will be present at Richard Croker's big banquet. Grover Cleveland, Senator Gorman, W. J. Bryan, John P. Altgeld, Richard P. Bland and all the great leaders of the party are barred. Mr. Croker is the whole thing.

THE Springfield Republican thinks that ex-Senator Gorman means to push Admiral Schley for the presidency. "As the presidential candidate, Schley, in Gorman's eyes, would be likely to meet many requirements," says the Republican. "He has no political record, would 'unite' the party and catch some of the war vote. Schley, is no statesman, but Gorman would see to that."

THE day of great industrial inventions is not yet ended. Two discoveries of importance are just announced, which, if the claims made for them can be substantiated, will work wonders in the industrial world. One is a new process of hardening steel far beyond anything ever known before; the other is the commercial production of liquid air and its adaptability to many, if not all, of the processes for which steam is now used. The latter claims to obviate the advantages under which steam labors, and, though this is too much to believe, it does seem probable that the new, strange substance will be substituted for steam in many of the departments of industry where the latter is now indispensable.

IF AGUINALDO will study American history some more he will learn that when an American soldier begins to plan for something to do a rare mess of trouble is being cooked up for the other fellow. The soldiers of General Otis at Manila are tired of roasting in the trenches the marks for the rebel sharpshooters and they want to fight. They are to be given a chance. Nobody but the rebel leaders need give bond for what happens when that rocket begins.

WE believe that if those domestic statesmen at Indiana who are full of an angry project to displace the Indianapolis Sentinel as a democratic organ will think twice or thrice before they launch their proposed new organ they will abandon the matter. If they will carefully take the pulse of the democratic masses of Indiana they may discover something much to their advantage. There is oftimes a deal of difference between what a few men think they think and what the people actually believe.

CENSUS PATRONAGE.

The number of appointments to be made by the director of the twelfth census, big and little, will, it is said, exceed 50,000. There is apparently no limit to the number of minor census employes that can be employed by Director Merriam. This immense patronage is to all intents and purposes outside of the civil service law. Appointments and removals can be made at will or at the discretion of the chief of the office. The temptation to use this power and to make appointments to serve political ends will no doubt be very great.

An army of 57,000 or more active workers might accomplish a great deal for the party in power, but at the same time there is another view to be taken of the matter. Parties ago has often been found to be a source of weakness rather than an element of strength to the party using it. Some wise statesman once remarked that every time he obtained an appointment for a constituent he made one ingrate and a dozen enemies. This is believed to be largely true, particularly as to the number of enemies as the disappointed applicants always outnumber the successful candidate, by more than a ratio of twelve to one. It is also pointed out that if Director Merriam should undertake to organize the census bureau into a republican political machine and degrade its work the indignation of the people would result in untold injury to his party. Director Merriam has a most difficult and delicate task before him.

There is one thing that an administration can do if it has plenty of patronage at its disposal; it can control to a very large extent the election of delegates to state and national conventions. It is perhaps on this account that Senator Hanna and other McKinley managers are not seriously concerned over the prospective candidacy of Theodore Roosevelt or any other possible rival for the republican presidential nomination next year.

CAN A BUSINESS MAN BE A CHRISTIAN?

[Indianapolis News.]

The Men's club of the First Congregational church in Detroit interested itself on a recent Sunday in a discussion of the question, "Can a successful business man be a consistent Christian?"

Probably this query would not exist were it not for the fact that so many professing Christians fail to carry their Christianity into their business. By such conduct they stamp themselves as hypocrites, lacking faith in the religion which they profess one day in the week.

The old saying that honesty is the best policy is a true one, and it is a paying policy in the long run. Christianity in business involves no more than any honest man ought to be willing to do.

The most successful men are those who are thoroughly reliable, and honesty is an essential part of Christianity. Trickery in trade is reprehensible from a business standpoint and surely business conditions have not yet reached a point where a man must be dishonest and violate his religious convictions in order to succeed.

It would be strange if at the close of the nineteenth century in this Christian nation, business and Christianity had been drifted so far apart that they could no longer be harmonized. If that be true there is a great work for our missionaries to do at home and a field that would test their most assiduous efforts.

Mr. Kipling Makes Steady Progress.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Rudyard Kipling continues to make steady progress toward recovery. His sleep is better and more refreshing, lasting several hours at a time. Brain power is still impaired, but that is only a temporary condition resulting from extreme physical weakness. Only one nurse remained in Mr. Kipling's room last night, and there was no call for her services.

WANTS NEW PAPER.

Senator Drummond's Wrath Has Not Cooled.

He Says There Is a Well Organized Movement Among Democrats to Supplant Indianapolis Sentinel.

PLYMOUTH, Ind., March 9.—State Senator Charles F. Drummond arrived home from Indianapolis last night and was interviewed on the matter of starting a new state paper, and said:

"It is proposed to organize the democracy of the state and establish a democratic newspaper at the capital. A committee located at Indianapolis will communicate with prominent democrats in each county, with a view of obtaining a pledge and guaranteed subscription from each county, which is to run for two years, sufficient to make the desirable investment to an experienced newspaper man, who must be a democrat.

"From present indications this will not be difficult of accomplishment, for the working democracy of the whole state is disgusted with the half-hearted blow-hot, blow-cold policy of the Sentinel. From expressions which I am receiving from all over the state the Sentinel is repudiated as a party organ. It may belong to Mr. Kern, its editor may belong to Mr. Shea, its editor may belong to the horsefair democracy of the state will let it be known that it is not the mouthpiece of our party. Its duty of dictation and use of the party to further the private ambition of its editor is done. It has let the force it apparently against the democratic minority during the whole of the session of the assembly ended. We received little commendation, but in its news and editorial columns we were handsomely excoriated, and ridiculed as the little heeltic minority. Such a course can only disorganize and ultimately disintegrate the proudest, best, and most valiant body of democrats in the country.

"Indiana is a political battle ground. Every inch is stubbornly contested. Ordinarily the party which has the best organization wins. We cannot win against a republican press and organization second to none, with a weak and pusillanimous paper for our spokesman, which dissipates its assets in pastime and deputs them as the embodiment of nobility.

"I deem it necessary to obtain the organized force of the democracy in this enterprise, to enlist the confidence of a newspaper man or men in this undertaking. I desire to say that there is no better field in the United States for a decent, high-toned, loyal democratic paper than Indianapolis, and no better time to launch it than now, for the democracy of Indiana will welcome it as a long-needed friend and rally as one man to its aid and support.

"Senators Nussbaum, of DeKalb; Shea, of Scott; Winfield, of Cass, and Hollier, of Whitley, are now actively engaged in the enterprise, together with nearly all the democratic members of the last assembly. On the 4th instant we held a joint caucus of the senate and house, at which it was resolved that each representative and senator would canvass the situation in each county and do his utmost to put a democratic paper on its feet."

WANT TO CHANGE FLAGS.

People at Fort Wrangel Want Their Town Located in Canada.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 9.—The citizens of Fort Wrangel, Alaska, are said by late arrivals from the north, to be drawing up a petition asking the high joint commission to cede their town to Canada. This is one of the oldest settlements in Alaska. They claim to be the center of Canadian travel to the mines of the interior and think a change of flags would help their business chances. The only excuse they offer for their desire to get from under the American flag is that the principles and laws for which that flag stands are not in effect in Alaska.

They claim that the territory has been abused and neglected. Wrangel is the starting point for the interior by the Bitkeem or All-Canadian trail. It proved a dismal failure last year and the Canadian government has about given up hopes of getting to the interior that way. It is doubtful if Canada would accept Wrangel as the British entrance. Wrangel has about 500 population.

HIS FAME SPREADS.

Frederick J. Maguire Plays at a Musical in Norwich, Conn.

Frederick J. Maguire, of this city, is a rising star in the musical world. Of a recent performance in Norwich, Conn., the Bulletin of that city speaks as follows:

"A musicale given on Monday evening at the home of John Pardee, offered a number of friends an opportunity of again hearing that talented artist, Frederick John Maguire, of New York, whose performances upon the piano upon previous visits have been so favorably commented upon.

"Among the selections rendered were a Bach prelude, a romanza by Schumann, a Grieg 'Ballade,' an etude by MacDowall, and that charming composition of Wilson G. Smith's, entitled, 'The Flight of the Butterflies.' These numbers, affording as they do an endless variety of expression, were given with a liquidity of tone, a faultless technique and a finished style which indicated that true artist.

"The supreme pleasure of the evening was provided by Mr. Maguire in his masterly rendition of an entire act from Wagner's 'Die Walkure,' which, in spite of the tremendous demands which it makes upon the performer, was given with faultless art and brilliancy. His performance was a revelation, no less than a delight, to his auditors.

"A noteworthy fact in connection with Mr. Maguire's performance was that during the entire evening he played without score; what this implies is recognized when it is remembered that a single number sometimes occupied more than half an hour, furnishing an adequate criterion of his prodigious memory as well as his exceptional talent as an artist. Mr. Maguire was until recently of the Virgil piano school, New York, and is a notable example of the efficiency of that institution."

KIPLING CHILD CREMATED.

Author's Idea of Burial Followed by the Wife and Mother.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The ashes of little Josephine Kipling rest today in a small urn at the Fresh Pond crematory. The baby was incinerated there Tuesday night in the presence of Dr. Conland, the family friend and physician from Brattleboro, Vt. Rudyard Kipling himself is a strong advocate of cremation. His long residence in India, where all bodies are burned, inclined him toward it.

When his six-year-old daughter died at the home of Miss Julia De Forest on Monday Mrs. Kipling, following what would be the desire of her husband if he knew, gave the necessary orders.

CREAM OF TARTAR.

Have you ever opened a jar of grape jam that has stood for a few months? If so, you have often noticed a film of white crystals on the top, and little crystals in the jam itself. This crystal is cream of tartar. It is a fruit product and a most wholesome one.

The chief supply of cream of tartar comes naturally from the grape growing countries, such as France and Italy.

After the juice of the grape has been put into large casks, crystals are deposited on the sides and bottoms of the casks. These crystals vary in color, as the grape varies, and of course are hard. They are chipped off from the casks, collected and sold under the commercial name of argols. These argols are then brought to this country, where are the largest cream of tartar factories in the world.

To purify and refine these argols, or crude tartar, requires a large and expensive plant, and as the argols themselves cost a great deal, pure crystal cream of tartar must be expensive.

For this reason one have taxed their ingenuity to devise some substitute.

Alum, ammonia and phosphates have been tried, and are even still used by manufacturers of the cheaper brands of baking powder, but nothing has been discovered so pure and wholesome, or so well adapted for the purpose, as the pure product of the grape.

After the cream of tartar is powdered, that is, ground into the white powder familiar to housekeepers, it is easily adulterated with flour, starch, or any white substance. Chemists have found so-called cream of tartar adulterated as high as 99 per cent. in short, with little or no cream of tartar in it.

These facts explain how a perfectly pure cream of tartar baking powder like Cleveland's cannot be sold in competition with brands made wholly or partly of some substitute for cream of tartar.

In addition to the fact that Cleveland's baking powder does more work and better work than any other, it is a satisfaction to the consumer to know that it is made of pure grape crystal cream of tartar, without a particle of ammonia, alum, phosphate or any other substitute whatever.

Will Go Into the Trust.

MARION, Ohio, March 9.—The directors of the Marion Manufacturing company, at a meeting here, decided to sell the concern to the new threshing machine combine, now being organized in Chicago. Information has been received here from the promoters that all the manufactures in the country except three will be included in the combine. The Huber company, of this city, has so far refused to consider a proposition.

The massive slug, together with over 500 ounces of smaller sized ones was uncovered. CURES WITHOUT PAIN.

The Pyramid Pile Cure cures all forms of piles without one particle of pain. This desirable point is not obtained by the use of injurious opiates which simply deaden and paralyze the nerves of the parts and make matters worse in the long run. But it is done solely by its remarkable healing and soothing effects.

And while it thus gives immediate relief, at the same time the disease is not merely checked, but a radical cure is rapidly accomplished.

And the point we want to make clear is that all this is done without a particle of pain.

The fact is one great reason for the popularity of the Pyramid Pile Cure and constitutes one very great and great difference between it and almost any other kind of treatment for piles.

Every kind of surgical operation for piles is excruciatingly painful besides endangering the life of the patient and in most cases it is not to be compared with the Pyramid Cure, neither in making successful cures without pain nor in cheapness and safety.

The Pyramid Pile Cure has been before the public so long, and its merits recognized by too many people to allow it to be classed with the many salves, suppositories, pills, etc., and you run no risk in trying it, as is often the case with untried preparations.

If you are ever troubled with any form of piles or rectal disease do not forget the Pyramid Pile Cure. Prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists at 50 cents per package.

A very pleasant afternoon party was given Wednesday by Mrs. Frank Ribbel in honor of Miss Mitholland, of Toledo. A profusion of pink carnations were used in decorating the rooms. A flower game furnished amusement for the guests and Mrs. Plummer won a beautiful cluster of roses.

Let Nature Do the Straining.

All doctors told Reuben Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from rectal fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest pile cure on earth, and the best salve in the world. 25 cents a box. Sold by Dreier & Bro., druggists.

THE DAWN OF WOMANHOOD.

Barnes' Words From Mrs. Pinkham to Mothers Who Have Daughters, and a Letter From Mrs. Dunmore, of Somerville, Mass.

The advent of womanhood is fraught with dangers which even careful mothers too often neglect.

One of the dangers to a young woman is belated menstruation. "The lily droops on its stem and dies before its beauty is unfolded," or she may have entered into the perfection of womanhood with little apparent inconvenience or disorder of health. But suddenly the menses entirely cease.

Mother, publicly mainly in taking hold of your daughter, and quick consumption may follow! Take no stunt steps to produce regular menstruation.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certain to assist nature to form her regular duties, procure it at once! there are volumes of testimony from grateful mothers who have had their daughters' health restored by its use. If personal advice is desired, write quickly to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. It will be given you without charge, and it will be the advice of abundant experience and success.

Read the following from Mrs. CHARLES DUNMORE, 192 Fremont St., Winter Hill, Somerville, Mass.:

"I was in pain day and night; my doctor did not seem to help me. I could not seem to find any relief until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had inflammation of the womb, a bearing-down pain, and the whites very badly. The pain was so intense that I could not sleep at night. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a few months, and am now all right. Before that I took morphine pills for my pains; that was a great mistake, for the relief was only momentary and the effect vile. I am so thankful to be relieved of my sufferings, for the pains I had were something terrible."

SHOP AND RAIL.

The Bowser Receives Some Nice Orders.

The Pittsburg Again Short of Power—Kipling Acknowledges a Compliment.

One of the busiest places in the city at present is the Bowser Oil Tank works, out on East Creighton avenue. Besides an immense business from all parts of the country, the company is enjoying a much larger local trade than usual. Among the most notable of the latter sales are twelve tanks to the Fort Wayne Drug company, two in the new store on Columbia street, and eight tanks to the city for use at the pumping stations, to hold lubricating and other oils. The outlook for business at the oil tank works was never so good as it is at present.

New Names on the Pay Roll.

The force of workmen in the machine shop of the Wabash was this morning increased by the following men: M. H. Cherry and M. Polser, machinists, and Harry Tourgeo, Joseph Huth and Oliver Carbaugh. The force in the yards was increased by G. Greisner and J. Vols.

Short of Engines.

So heavy is business on the western division of the Pittsburg road that power is again short and the management is looking about to see where it can borrow some engines. There were seventeen engines from eastern division here a few weeks ago, but when the business began to fall off they were returned.

Fast Freight Run.

A Pittsburg paper tells of a fast run that a train of twenty-three cars of live stock made over the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago last week. From Alliance to state line, thirty-four miles, was run in an hour, which is eight minutes faster than mail and passenger. Into 14 runs, the latter making two stops. The train was hauled from Crestline to state line, 145 miles, in four hours and fifty-five minutes.

Steam Motor Tests.

In a test on Monday the steam motor car of the Panhandle made the run from Xenia to Springfield at a speed of forty-five miles an hour, hauling two cars. The test was made to ascertain what the motor could do. The branch of the Panhandle from Xenia to Springfield is slightly down grade, which was in favor of the motor. It is not intended, however, to run the motor that fast when in regular service.

Shopmen Joins the Regular Army.

Herman Schroeder was so delighted with army life during his service in the Twenty-eighth Indiana battery that he has enlisted in the regular army and will leave in a few days for Fort Sheridan, where he will be assigned to a company in the cavalry service. Since his discharge from the battery he has been working in the Pittsburg lumber yards. Yesterday he received notice that he had been accepted in the regular army, and he immediately resigned the position at the shop and began preparations for the trip to Fort Sheridan. He is popular with his shopmates and other friends, and will carry with him the best wishes of all.

Kipling Acknowledges the Honor.

Several years ago Fred D. Underwood, now general manager of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, named two stations in the upper peninsula of Michigan "Rudyard" and "Kipling," one being in an agricultural country and the other in an iron ore district. Some time later a mutual friend informed Kipling of Mr. Underwood's action, and the celebrated author sent Mr. Underwood his photograph with the following lines on the back:

"RUDYARD" AND "KIPLING."

"Which the child who knows his sire."
The sire and yearning son,
But where for the man who knows
How, where, and at on his differing crown.
For what the neighborhood supposes
I've sent in Michigan.

Yet am I saved from midnight ills
That warp the soul of man,
They shall not wake or walk the floor,
Nor hammer at the doctor's door,
They dwell in quiet and true ore,
My sons in Michigan.

Oh, turn not to the hotel or car
Or Cook's or Raymond's plan!
Forsloe a parent's partial cheer!
But, maybe, you have children, too—
So let us talk of them
My sons in Michigan.

No man has a right to marry a woman and make her his nurse during long years of continued ill health, unless the man cannot be a good husband, a good provider, a successful business man, or a useful citizen; a man had better be dead and done with it than be a lifelong burden, a nuisance to everybody and especially to the woman whom he has vowed to love, honor and protect.

The trouble with the average man is that he has not the least conception of the causes of ill health or the right way to go about remedying them. A little doctoring or bilksomness in themselves are not to be complained, but if medicine they may do, while only almost any disease in the medical books. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures many serious diseases by promptly removing the cause. It tones up the weak and tempted stomach and restores the appetite. It invigorates the liver and all the secretory glands. It purifies the blood and thereby cures all skin diseases, from a common blotch, pimple or eruption, to the worst case of scrofula. It clears the system of poisonous humors, whether inherited or contracted. From the first dose of the "Discovery" the blood begins to purify and improve in quality. In a few days the skin will show a clearer complexion, and in a few weeks pimples, blotches and eruptions will have disappeared. For weak, sickly children, the "Discovery" is a perfect godsend. It acts like magic in curing all forms of scrofula, even the worst cases, such as tumors, white swellings, hip joint disease, and kindred affections. Even consumption (which is scrofula of the lungs) is cured by it, if taken in time. It is the only blood purifier sold by druggists, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money is refunded.

"I was troubled with a humor in my blood, which broke out in sores on my face," writes Miss M. J. Tedder, of Jefferson, Rockingham Co., Va. "Two bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one box of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cured me. No sore has appeared since." He was troubled with sores on his face for three years. Every one said he had consumption.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and the Pleasant Pellets cured him. Sores broke out on my face. Eyes were bad. Ears were bad. Every one said he had consumption.

THAT THE INTER STATE

That the Inter State meeting in Mansfield next Thursday, where he will be met by the Fort Wayne director of the league and arrangements for the season will be discussed. He will be given complete authority to sign players and will be held responsible for them during the season.

The season will not commence this year until May 1, and the local players will not be requested to report until after the 10th of April. An effort will be made to play a few exhibition games to give the players practice and pick up a few extra dollars that may be floating about.

MAY SELL OUT.

Judging from the following from the Mansfield News such a thing as the sale of the Haymaker franchise may not result: "Local base ball interests are sending in their orders for season tickets slowly, about a score of cards having been received up to date. The management is decidedly undoubtedly as to whether the grounds is to be put up and a team continued in Mansfield this season. In this connection it may be stated that the Mansfield club has received another offer for its franchise and team. A local seventy-five season tickets should be placed this week. If you want to see base ball continue in Mansfield send in your order for a season ticket without delay."

BELONG TO WHEELING.

Wheeling and Syracuse have been contending for their respective rights to the services of second baseman Monona and short stop Woodlock, who were reserved by Springfield and have affixed their signatures to Syracuse contracts. Unable to reach an amicable agreement the parties submitted their case to the supreme judge of base ballDom, President Young, of the National league. He transmitted his ruling to the Wheeling management Tuesday, holding that the Wheeling management has the first claim upon the services of these players. Monona and Woodlock are understood to be satisfied to play there.

THE ROBISON PARK LEAGUE.

A meeting will shortly be called for the organization of a city league. The Robison Park league was composed of six teams last year, and two games were played at the park every Sunday afternoon. Then an organized made it impossible for the teams playing the second game in the afternoon to reach the city before 7 o'clock. To remedy this an endeavor will be made to have one game played at Robison park every Sunday, and at the same time to have a game played on some grounds near the city. The sentiment among the amateurs is for a four club league. This would make the league stronger and the race more interesting.

MANAGERS TO MEET.

The Shamrocks will hold a meeting at 11 West Washington street, next Wednesday evening. The line up of the team for the coming season has been completed. But two new players are on the list. The Robison Park league championships and stronger than ever, and expect to be in the game all the time.

"Slunnie" Smuck has organized a team to enter the city amateur championship race.

WILL OPEN BIDS.

Important Meeting of Board of Works Tonight.

Bids Will be Opened and Ordinances Will be Heard—Municipal News of Interest.

The meeting of the board of public works this evening will be an important one. Bids will be opened for the printing of the annual reports of the mayor, his cabinet and the heads of all the departments. The book will this year probably be larger than ever before.

Bids will also be opened for the construction of the sewer in the Swinney park well, and the sewer over the market space. These latter bids are on plans which will be submitted by each of the bidders. Bids were opened some weeks ago on plans submitted by the city engineer and the cost was too great. The contractors believe they can submit plans and prices that will be satisfactory.

The board will hear remonstrants to the resolution providing for the vacation of a five-foot alley on the west side of lots 11 and 12, Sauerwein's addition, and for the opening of a twelve-foot alley between lots 10 and 11, Sauerwein's additions. Remonstrants will also be heard to the vacation of Berry street, north of lot 240, Rockhill's Second addition, and against the widening of Nelson street, from the alley north of Washington to St. Mary's river.

George Jacobs Is Selling the Best Standard Makes.
The Opportunity Should Not Be Allowed to Go By
Of Buying One at Cost and Upon Easy Payments.

A piano is something one would only want to purchase once in a lifetime, and when the opportunity is presented of buying a Weber, Kranich & Bach, Kingsbury, Wheelock, Crown, Stayvesant or Billington, at the cost price, and that too upon easy terms, there should be no hesitation in the matter, for never again will the same prices and terms be made in this city, for the same conditions will not again be found in the business affairs of a dealer as are now presented by George Jacobs in his determination to make a change in his business.

All internal preparations said to relieve morning sickness are not only humbugs, but positively dangerous.

A Critical Examination
is hardly necessary to distinguish the radical difference between the stylish, neatly-fitting clothes that come from our store and the clothes of the hand-me-down variety you are tempted to buy elsewhere because the price seems small.
We make the clothes fit the man—not the man the clothes. We see that the styles are those of today—not those of last season. We take care that the material is the kind that wears—not the kind that moreby holds together until you get home. We make the price fit close down to the value we give.
FRIEND'S,
Calhoun and Berry Streets.

A LIGHT WEIGHT OVERCOAT
Is a handy garment to have, even in Summer. Trips out of town and chilling night rains call for something more comfortable than what you have been wearing through a sunshiny day. It is three months off to the real warm weather.

You
Fat men, slim men, you old shape men, you long, tall, and you long around men, you men with long legs, you men with wide girths. They can't fit you; we can sure pop. Same price to you as to any one else.

Young Men
Who like stylish garments, can find at our store just what they want. The clothing we sell is made by men who are just as skilful as the best merchant tailors, and it is made of the best material, and sold for a great deal less than they can sell them.

Pants.
All wear them, all use them. One's the best, the most stylish and at the same time the cheapest. We invite all male members of your family to wear our pants. They will last them longer, and look better than other pants.

Hard on Clothes.
The rough sports of the healthy boy are good for him, but rather hard on his clothes. We have a line of boys' clothing that was made to stand rough usage. It is strong in the places where boys' clothing generally rips, and reinforced in the places that are generally first to wear out.
Fit your boy out for spring here. We can save money for you. Please the boy, and make it possible for him to enjoy the spring's sports in comfort.

Men's Suits.
What shall I wear this spring? Is the question most frequently asked. Come to our store and we will show you what you ought to wear, and surprise you at what little cost we will dress you well.

Hats and Caps.
Don't pay extravagant prices for a good hat, when you can get the same of us for a great deal less. Our complete line of Spring Caps are now in, and we can say without boast, it is the nobbiest line in the city. Come and see them.

Advice.
A gentle call down from your wife or best girl, if you don't buy your clothes here. Not that she is interested in our welfare, but she is interested in having you get the benefit for your money. We sell the best and most stylish clothes, and put the lowest possible price on them.
